SUMMARY

Full Stack Developer focused on building complete SaaS products with integrated AI. Founder of Flowlytics — a financial management SaaS in production, built end-to-end in 7 months and validated with 490+ subscribers. I combine full stack development (React, Node.js, OpenAI API, Stripe) with product thinking and UX judgment. Background in QA and technical support that becomes an advantage: I understand quality from the inside and can communicate equally well with technical teams and business stakeholders.
